Information/allegations
A 26 years old Syrian migrant resident in Moria RIC attempted to commit suicide pouring gasoline over his body and setting himself on fire in front of EASO area. The migrant was immediately helped by other migrants and HP officers.

Measures
Doctors from KEELPNO provided first medical assistance and then he was transferred to Mytilini Hospital.

Assessment
Out of frustration due to the long transit time before being transferred to the mainland, he tried to commit suicide.
Final outcome
Migrant suffered several burns, in particular around his neck, but none of them life threatening. He is still in the Hospital
