Dear Kristian,

I trust this email finds you well.

I am writing to thank you for the kind invitation to the High-Level Roundtable on Illegal Content on January 9th, 2018 in Brussels and, in this regards, please find attached a letter from Sundar Pichai, Google CEO, to

Commissioner Bieńkowska

and

other

Commissioners involved in the meeting.

Unfortunately, Sundar will not be able to personally join the meeting but have asked [redacted], [redacted], to represent Google as he did recently at the G7 summit on anti-terrorism in Ischia, and at the EU Internet Forum in Brussels.

Sundar on behalf of all our organization share your concern about bad actors exploiting the internet to mislead, manipulate, harass or even harm people and he is strongly committed to continue active engagement to find solutions to these pressing challenges.

We would like also to offer [redacted] availability to contribute to the debate and share our experience on the day, speaking about the innovative technologies we use for detection and take-down of illegal content.

I remain at your disposal for further information and details.

Best regards and let me wish you a Merry Christmas.

[redacted]
