Hej Cecilia,

On the 21st of November from 18.30, we will be hosting drinks in the Facebook Loft, an interactive exhibit which will showcase our latest technology and our effort to bring communities closer together.

I really hope you can join us. Please find the details below and let me know if someone from my team can assist with registrations.

Mvh,

Join Facebook in Brussels for an evening as we explore the future of technology.

We want to tell you our story of how Facebook is helping to connect people and communities in Europe in new and exciting ways.

Come and experience a first-hand journey through virtual reality.

Learn how we help communities and people be safer and how community groups are getting involved in the issues they care about.

See how small businesses in Europe are connecting to more customers.

Become insta-famous at the Instagram booth!

This invitation is for you and your team.

We hope to see you there!
