(11a) The characteristics of initial coin offerings (ICOs) differ considerably from crowdfunding regulated in this Regulation. Among others, ICOs typically do not use intermediaries, such as crowdfunding platforms, and often raise funds in excess of EUR 1 000 000. The inclusion of ICOs in this Regulation would not tackle the problems associated with ICOs as a whole.

In order to enable a proper supervision of such activities, the national competent authority should be informed about whether the crowdfunding service provider intends to carry out payment services itself with the appropriate authorisation, or whether such services will be outsourced to an authorised third party.	with-Directive (EU) 2015/2366 of the European Parliament and of the Council ²⁷ ; an authorisation to provide crowdfunding services does not equate to an authorisation also to provide payment services.
