Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you very much for your e-mail.

All necessary information will be provided closer to date and a possibility for a test call will be offered.

May I assume that Mr O’Flaherty will be ‘accompanied’ by Ms [REDACTED]

Thank you very much for your reply,
[REDACTED]

Dear Ms [REDACTED]

I am writing to you on behalf of Director, Michael O’Flaherty:

Mr O'Flaherty would like to thank you for your invitation sent on 26/10/2020, where you kindly invited him to participate in this online event. The Director highly appreciates your kind invitation and has the pleasure to confirm his attendance to the meeting.

I would highly appreciate it if you could possibly send us some weeks before the event is taking place (if any other changes):

1. an up-to-date (preliminary) programme;
2. a latest list of participants;
3. other practical arrangements (for instance, a direct contact details of a person in charge of this event in case of some last minute organisational questions).
4. for virtual events: (WebEx, Skype for Business, etc.) access hyperlinks for a speaker and guest(s) to listen-in if possible; a direct link where a live streaming will be accessible; and a full direct/mobile number of relevant IT helpdesk;

For further follow up, I kindly invite your secretariat to liaise directly with our Colleague, Ms [REDACTED] in copy.

I remain at your disposal should you require any further details.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Dear Madam/Sir,

Please find attached a letter from Mr Ladislav Hamran, President of Eurojust.

May I please ask you to bring the letter to its recipient's attention?

Thank you very much for your assistance.

Best regards,
