Brussels, 28 January 2020 - final agenda and list of participants

[REDACTED]

Due to unforeseen last minute circumstances myself of my colleague Ms Abigail Clayton will not be able to attend this very interesting meeting. I noticed in the agenda that there is a point where each Agency will be presenting the situation regarding access to documents. In order to get a feeling of what is situation at FRA please find attached the 2019 report that also includes a comparison with past years.

Of course there is more information related to sensitive and delicate cases that FRA dealt and we could discuss/present it hopefully in an upcoming meeting.

Apologises for this last minute cancellation.
Nonetheless, myself and Ms Clayton we remain available in case any further information is required.

Best regards,

Subject: save-the-date message PAD Training JHA Agencies
28.01.2020

Dear colleagues,

You will have noted that Public Access to Documents is one of the topics Eurojust identified for the JHA Network in 2020.

PAD was also a topic selected by Europol this year and we had an exchange in the first meeting of the network in February. We also created a list of contact points of the JHA Agencies. At the second network meeting, we agreed that there was no necessity in creating an expert group on PAD. At that time Eurojust mentioned the possibility of a one off training tailor-made for JHA Agencies. We explored the matter and consulted the Commission who has kindly offered its support and will provide a training to staff of the 9 JHA agencies dealing with PAD requests. The training will also allow for an exchange of challenges and best practice.

Please note that the training will take place on 28 January 2020 in Brussels at the Commission. A formal invitation with an agenda will be sent to the agencies beginning of January.

I enclose the list of contacts. I kindly ask you to give your colleagues a heads-up and to inform me in case of changes to this list.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
