Subject: Invitation to the Meeting of the Heads of JHA Agencies 2019

[REDACTED]

I am pleased to invite you to the annual Meeting of the Heads of Justice and Home Affairs Agencies, which will take place at Europol's headquarters in The Hague on 22 November 2019. The meeting will be preceded by a networking dinner in the evening of 21 November. Exact location will be communicated at a later stage.

This year the Justice and Home Affairs Agencies Network (JHAAN) is chaired by Europol and focuses on the goal of engaging in a joint strategic reflection on the role of JHA agencies in the future development of the EU Justice and Home Affairs agenda. The meeting in November will have the purpose of taking stock of the discussions held in the framework of the JHAAN, which focused on a number of topics that are vital for the cooperation of JHA Agencies.

Moreover, during the event, the main outcomes of this year's meetings of JHAAN expert groups will be brought forward for discussion, covering areas like: ICT and cybersecurity, diversity and inclusion, communication, training, external relations and data protection.

The aim of the meeting is to agree on a common strategy for the future cooperation of JHA Agencies, therefore enhancing further the links between all participating agencies and advancing the network's capabilities for cooperation.

The registration link is included, and a draft agenda and practical information will be sent to you soon.
